FROM THE

Who give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name; Make known His deeds among the peoples.+ (1Chronicles 16:8 NAU)

During this season of Thanksgiving, many of us recall the historical account of the first Thanksgiving when the Pilgrims who came over on the Mayflower celebrated with the Native Americans. As the 104 Pilgrims arrived to the new world in search of a better life on November 10, 1620, their governor, William Bradford, wrote these words:

"Being thus arrived in a good harbor and brought save to land, we fell upon our knees and blessed the god of heaven, who had brought us over the vast a furious ocean, and delivered us from all the perils and miseries thereof, again to set our feet on the firm and stable earth."

The first year the Pilgrims were in the new world was very hard on them. They were plagued with sickness and disease. By March of the next year, they had buried 47 of the original 104 people who came over on the Mayflower.

The day that changed their lives was March 16, 1621. On that day, a scantily dressed Indian named Samoset walked into their little village and simply said in English "Welcome." It was about the only English word he knew. He had learned it from his friend Squanto who had learned English on a trip he made to England with an English explorer named Captain John Weymouth. Squanto returned to New England only to be captured by the British and sold as a slave in Spain. A Franciscan priest befriended him and helped him return to his homeland. When Squanto finally made it back home, he returned as a Christian able to speak fluent English.

If it wasn't for Squanto, the pilgrims would not have survived. He helped them build better homes; he showed them where to hunt and fish, when and where to plant their crops. He showed them what plants they could eat, which ones were poisonous and which ones they could use for medicinal purposes. And yes, it was Squanto who taught them how to grow Indian corn by putting a dead fish in with the seed to help fertilize it.

Governor Bradford said these words about Squanto, he was a special instrument sent of God for their good beyond their expectations.+ By October, the pilgrims harvest had been plentiful and they had more than enough food for winter. Governor Bradford proclaimed a day of Thanksgiving and invited all of Squanto's tribe to join in celebration.

Together for three days, they celebrated and thanked God for His goodness. One of the pilgrims, Edward Winslow, wrote a letter on December 12, 1621, describing what happened. Here is how he ended his letter. "And although it be not always so plentiful as it was at this time with us, yet by the goodness of God, we are so far from want that we often wish you partakers of our plenty.+ After all of the adversity the pilgrims faced in their first year in the New World, they truly had something to be thankful for.

What about you? Most of have never faced the kind of adversity that the Mayflower pilgrims faced, but we all face adversity from time to time. But I believe that even in the midst of adversity, we can always find something to be thankful for. This Thanksgiving, may you stop, pause, and find those things. Remember the words of Saint Paul, "In everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.+ (1 Thessalonians 5:17)

Happy Thanksgiving!

Because of Him,

Thrift Shop News & Thanks

In October, Maples had total sales of $2313.00 at the Thrift Shop. We also gave children's books to the Together Ministry, clothes to a lady from the Post Prison Ministry, and yarn donated to the Knitters at Maples. This could not have been done without the help of: Ashton Adams, Pam Adams, Joyce Alexander, Cecelia Gilkey, Tracie Goff, Mary Holden, Joyce Kashmer, Lori & Sarah Kirchhoff, Joyce Stewart, Cindy Tyler, and Robin Whittington. A letter at the Information Desk lists the churches affiliated with the Thrift Shop and also the charities and amounts to whom we gave this past September at our semi-annual meeting. Please check this out and see why this is such a worthy charity to support.

Thank You All,
Judy Boone, Coordinator

Commemorative Ornaments

Firm Foundation, Maples' youth choir, is selling Christmas ornaments to commemorate Maples 175 years of ministry. Cost is $20 with proceeds going towards their summer 2016 trip to Orlando. Check with Joey Lott to order.

Nursery Care Giver Needed

A care-giver is needed for our Sunday morning nursery. This should be an individual who loves babies and toddlers, is able to get down on the floor to play with them, is willing to change diapers and feed babies, can teach, lead and engage in Biblical play and can maintain a safe, loving environment. Must be over 18 years of age, pass a background check and attend trainings. If interested, contact Rev. Alecia Fischer at 662-895-2279 or alecia@mapleschurch.org.

Spirit Kids Christmas Musical

Spirit Kids are working hard Wednesday nights on their Christmas musical, The First Leon. The performance will be Sunday night, December 6th at 5:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. The choir is practicing on Wednesdays from 6-7:30 p.m. in our rotation AND on Sundays from 4:00-5:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. The week of December 1st, they will practice on Thursday, December 3rd from 6-7:30 p.m., on Friday, December 4th from 6-7:30 p.m., and on Saturday, December 5th from 10:00 a.m.-noon. All Spirit Kids need to try to make every practice that they can.

No What? In November

There will be no What? in November or December. This program for 5th Graders will resume on the last Sunday in January.

Mission Moments: Candle Tree

The Missions Committee has decided to partner with John and Karen Sudduth and Together Ministry Center in Candle Lite Trailer Park for the annual Angel Tree. The "Candle Tree", formerly known as the Angel Tree, is set up by the Information Desk with "candles" you may select to help provide Christmas for children this year. The candles will have information needed to provide clothing and gifts for children living in the trailer park. In hopes that all children receive an equal amount, we ask that you keep the quantity of packages to 3. You may also include gift cards to restaurants and shopping places for the adults. As you prepare the boxes, pray over the gifts and include an encouraging scripture to the family. We are called to be the "light" in our world - take a candle in hopes that some families lives will be a little brighter!

Be Part of the Christmas Parade

The Olive Branch Christmas Parade is almost upon us! Saturday, December 5th. We need children and adults to ride on our float. You can meet us at church by 12:30 p.m. or at Olive Branch High School in the line-up by 1:30 p.m. Please let Nicol Hager or Alecia Fischer at alecia@mapleschurch.org know if you or your children would like to be on our Maples float.

Ministry to Hope Lodge

Volunteers Needed for December

During this time of Thanksgiving, let us be thankful for the blessings we have received. If you feel called to share a blessing with others, we have an opportunity to serve a meal to patients and families residing at Hope Lodge Cancer residence in Memphis. Patients and their families undergoing cancer treatments would be blessed to have a meal prepared for them. This is a great mission for a Sunday School class or small group to participate in. We need volunteers for Thursday, December 17 around 5:00 p.m. Please contact Dave Kirchoff at 662-403-7251 for more detailed information.

Lay Servant Training

A lay servant is a an active, supporting member of a local church who wants to serve the Church, is well informed on scriptures and The United Methodist Church, and has received specific training to develop skills in witnessing to the Christian faith through spoken communication, church and community leadership and caregiving ministries.

If this sounds like a role you could fill, please consider taking the Senatobia District Lay Servant Training on Saturday, February 13, 2016 at Hernando United Methodist at 1890 Mt. Pleasant Rd. in Hernando. Gathering and a light breakfast begin at 7:30 a.m. and closing communion is at 3:30 p.m. Cost of this training is $45 to be paid at time of registration (plus an additional $5 if you would like a bbq plate for lunch.) The fee includes classroom materials.

Registration forms are available in Mapleschurch office and are due in to the registrar at Pleasant Hill UMC no later than February 4.

Learning Center Needs Drivers

Maples Learning Center is looking for back up drivers for after school pickups. This is a volunteer position, but MLC will pay for the CDL license you need to drive their buses. This is not an everyday job; just to fill in when a regular driver can't be there.

Please note that the Agape Sunday School class will be helping out at the Mid-South Toys for Tots (3940 Delp, Memphis, TN) on Saturday, December 12th from 1:00- 4:00 p.m. If you would like to join the group in volunteering, please let Bill Howell (901-692-4126) know as he needs to provide a head count.
